Mr. Miguel Ocana
MEF Construction, Inc.
782 NW LeJeune Rd., Suite 640
Miami, FL 33126

Dear Mr. Ocana:

We are in receipt of your letter dated October 17, 2008 stating your concerns regarding the recommendation for bid award for Concrete Sidewalk and Curbing-Repairs and New Installation, B-08-109.

The bid tabulation that was e-mailed to you was a preliminary bid tabulation sheet which had not been checked and verified. It was merely a recording of the pricing from each bidder's pricing sheet. In actuality, your company miscalculated the total cost of your bid. I have now checked and verified all the numbers and as it turns out, your company IS NOT the low bidder on this project. I have attached a copy of the final bid tabulation for your records.

Regardless of the final numbers shown on this bid tabulation, the Town still reserves the right to "award this bid on a split award basis by Section" as stated in section 10 of the Town's bid specification. The Town's recommendation for award is consistent with this language.

In light of the above facts, your bid protest is respectfully declined. Should you have any further questions concerning this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Herb Hyman, CPPB, FCPM, FCPA

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).
Certification instructions. You must check out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 4.)

Purpose of Form
A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.
U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:
1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
or
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding,
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.
Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.
For federal tax purposes you are considered a person if you are:
• An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States.
• A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or
• Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-8(a) and 7(a) for additional information.
Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).
Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.
If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:
1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.
